

If you want to go, just go. I'm here and I will wait for you. Although you were dead, I still love you like our first day. I respect your decision, though it is hard to accept. Today, I cried a lot. I missed you. I cherish our moment in the past. You are my motivation everyday. I never stop loving you. I want to hug you. You are the beautiful boy. You are the beautiful flower. You are the beautiful soul. I'm still with you. All my request is your love. Maybe I am a bit of selfish, but I still want your love. If you can't be next to me, my love never stop running deep inside my heart. Maybe I'm beautiful too. Because beautiful girl deserves beautiful boy.
